

Are You Ready?

Imagine that bad weather or something happened and you and your family had to either stay home for a while or leave for a while. What things would you want with you?

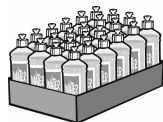

It is important to have extra supplies on hand before you need them in case you can't get them in an emergency. You should have two sets of supplies: 1) you should have one set of supplies set aside in case you have to stay in your home; 2) you should have another set of supplies in a bag to take with you if you have to leave. Read below to find out what you would need.

Are You Ready to Go?

Unscramble the bold words below to learn about some of the things you should have in your Ready-to-Go Kit.

1. Don't get thirsty! Carry one gallon of rawte in your backpack. _____
2. Make sure you have something to eat. Take canned or dried oofd that doesn't need to be refrigerated. _____
3. Make sure you have a small sriff iad kit with you. _____
4. Keep a hiltslahf with extra batteries in case the electricity doesn't work. _____
5. A battery-powered oraid lets you know what is happening where you are. _____

Are You Ready to Stay?

Here are some extra items you should have in your Ready-to-Stay Kit. Complete each sentence with a word from the word list on the right.

1. Help your family put everything in one place, like in a plastic storage container or a special _____.
2. You will need more water if you are staying at home than if you are going. Have three _____ for each person.
3. Have the supplies you use every day to keep clean, like _____.
4. Just in case something in your home breaks, make sure your family has _____ in the kit.
5. Don't forget, you still need a _____ and _____ in your "Ready-to-Stay" Kit so that you can see and listen to what is happening in case the electricity fails.

Word List

- cabinet
- flashlight
- gallons
- radio
- soap
- tools

